Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

We don't know whether Sport is impervious to the weather or whether he is just like that old mule, and just does not give a darn.

This morning the show had drifted up nearly a foot out in the back and there was Sport all matted up in the middle of the drift.

He may have gotten the idea he had some flake in him or something. Anyway he was lying there in the snow, eyeing the bright sun.

A Rufous Sided Towhee out in the back yard this morning looking as though he was just seeing the light for the first time. He was all covered with snow however.

Robbie Hubbard comes in yesterday to his home in the back yard. He says he is going to make a point to the headline on the paper.

Specialist Four Jerry N. Edridge who is now in Viet Nam with the 545th Transportation Company writes a poem about the contribution that the truck drivers are making in the war effort. He titles it "The Truck Drivers".

I am standing here beside my truck this cold rainy night. Shaking like a leaf in an autumn wind, but not from a chill, it's from fright.

Motor sounds falling from all around. But all I can wait to do is go with the next sound.

But all I can do is wait to go with the next sound. The truck drivers are very seldom.

Union Leader Turns Self In To Begin Serving Prison Term

By FRANK SWOBODA
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Jimmy Hoffa turned himself in to federal marshals today to go to prison for jury tampering. The fiery Teamster president, protesting to the last that he was the victim of a government vendetta, stands to spend at least 30 months behind bars.

The 54-year-old head of the nation's biggest labor organization showed up 8 minutes after the time to surrender himself at the federal courthouse here.

The weather was cold and raining as the muffled, grim little man with the big power arrived in a tan raincoat — to be discarded before the day was out for prison blues at Lewisburg, Pa. federal prison.

Hoffa, boxer of an intensive three-year legal battle to stay out of prison after getting an eight-year sentence for tampering with a Nashville, Tenn., jury in 1962, was mobbed by reporters as he arrived at the Federal Building at the foot of Capitol Hill.

As he has innumerable times since he started his battle with the government 10 years ago, Hoffa said in his parting shot that he was innocent.

"If the government can do this to Hoffa," he said on the steps of the courthouse, "it can do it to any American citizen. I warn every American citizen to fight to protect the constitutional rights that we are losing."

Hoffa's battery of lawyers claimed he was convicted by illegal evidence, gathered by wiretapping and bugging — that his constitutional rights were trampled underfoot.

Hoffa's jailing became inevitable Monday when a federal appeals court turned down his last desperate bid to stay free with a $100,000 bond.

The court has decided to deny all motions by Hoffa's lawyers.

Initial plans to appeal the decision to the Supreme Court evaporated quickly after a hurried conference between Hoffa and his attorneys.

Teamster attorneys, who just a moment ago were celebrating Hoffa's release, now are preparing for his imprisonment.

Big Bertha Guns Target Of Cong

By BRYER MILLER
United Press International

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. Marines smashed three Communist attacks today against the American Big Bertha guns blasting across the Demilitarized Zone DMZ into North Vietnam.

The Leathernecks at Camp Carroll suffered six men killed and 15 wounded but for the second time in a week brought their 175mm howitzers through a storm of North Vietnamese mortar fire without a scratch on the sand-bagged big guns.

Crack North Vietnamese units swarmed three times, once just after midnight and twice about dawn, against the howitzers. The Marines moved into position recently to help fight off invasion attempts by three North Vietnamese divisions poised at the DMZ.

The three Communist assaults at Camp Carroll's "artillery plateau" eight miles south of the DMZ came as more Marines fought off a North Vietnamese battalion two miles away in the jungle.

In Saigon, 400 miles to the south a sea of fire burned out eight blocks of waterfront slums in what was possibly the greatest Viet Cong terror strike against the capital.

The fire killed at least 14 persons and destroyed 700 houses, leaving thousands homeless, according to government spokesmen. Nearly 100 military warehouses were burned.

The North Vietnamese opened their assault today against Camp Carroll, named for Leatherneck hero Capt. J. J. Carroll of Miami, Fla., who fell in the area last fall, with a barrage of 150-mm mortar shells. The Marine lines held and fired back.

Hours later the Communists assaulted back and unleashed a 35-round mortar barrage again helped by small arms fire. But the Marines were ready with their own mortars already aimed and primed. Finally a third North Vietnamese assault boomed with 100 mortar rounds.

Leatherneck answering fire set off an explosion, indicating it hit a Communist ammunition dump. The attackers beat back into the jungle toward the DMZ infiltration routes the big berthas keep zeroed in. Communist casualty figures were not immediately available.

In the jungle fight two miles to the northwest of Carroll, Marines reported they fought all day Monday and remained in heavy combat into the night. A small Leatherneck patrol caught a North Vietnamese battalion-sized force moving near Carroll and, despite the odds, fought until reinforcement helicopters whirled in.

The patrol possibly broke up a planned Communist pincer attack on the big guns.

Mrs. David Gowans

The executive board of the Murray Woman's Club met for lunch on at the clubhouse on Monday. Mrs. David Gowans, president, presided at the business meeting. Twenty-two board members attended.

Mrs. Gowans announced that the Murray Woman's Club has contributed $150 to the Cerebral Palsy fund, most of which was collected by Theta Department from canisters placed in Murray.

The Spring general meeting will be held on March 29th, 10:30 a.m. at the clubhouse, at which time the general business meeting will be held and annual reports by department chairmen and committee chairmen will be read. The Home, Kappa and Sigma Departments will be hosts to this meeting.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made with Department chairmen before March 26th.

Mrs. Don Keller, contest chairman, reminded all present that the district arts contest will be held in Paducah on March 11th.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete, but friends may call at the Byrns Funeral Home in Mayfield.

The Gold Medal Home, the concept of total electric living, was the educational and informative program presented by the Murray Electric System last night as they hosted the Murray-Calloway County Builders Association at the Holiday Inn.

Miss Sue Wells, Frank Callahan, and Ed Lee of the Tennessee Valley Authority were in Murray to demonstrate to the local builders the convenient, modern living provided through total electric living.

Mr. Lee explained to the association the purpose of the Gold Medal Home program. He said that the requirements for the Gold Medal Home included total electric appliances and ventilation in the kitchen; automatic electric washers and dryers for the laundry; an electric water heating unit; "light for living"; electric heating and air conditioning; and adequate wiring for full housepower.

Subway Trains Crash With 105 Injured

United Press International
BOSTON (UPI) — Two four-car subway trains packed with rush-hour commuters collided at a station on a trestle today in a swirling snowstorm. At least 105 persons were injured, none believed seriously.

The two Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority MBTA trains crashed at City Square station atop an elevated structure 80 feet above the street in Boston's Charlestown section.

Women screamed. Passengers fell to the floor like bowling pins. Two persons suffered broken legs.

The injured were carried in stretchers and litters down winding and ice-slippery steps to scores of waiting ambulances, police cruisers and patrol cars which took them to Massachusetts General Hospital and Boston City Hospital.

One train had stopped to wait a change in lights when the second skidded into it despite the operator's frantic efforts to stop. The trains, not extensively damaged, remained upright but one was knocked off the tracks.

The trains were jammed with work-bound commuters, many of whom had left their cars at home rather than battle the blinding snowstorm that dumped up to nine inches of snow in the Boston area.

Heavy Snow And Sleet Hits County Yesterday; Three Accidents Occur

Murray and Calloway County received the deepest snow of the winter yesterday and last night when a cold rain turned into sleet yesterday then into snow as the mercury dropped to 31 in the mid-afternoon.

Within minutes the streets and highways were covered with snow and the muddy slush congealed into a slippery mass.

The snow continued throughout the afternoon and into the night, finally ending in a fine, wind-blown snow.

Motorists in the city apparently had safety in mind yesterday and last night as no accidents were reported. Cars moved at a snail's pace through the streets of the city.

County schools closed shortly after noon yesterday and school children were taken to their homes before the snow began to fall. All county schools, Calloway County High and University School were closed today, however city schools and Murray State University continued in session.

The entire area was hit by the March snow storm with seven inches reported in Paducah. All flights were cancelled at Barkley field this morning as efforts got underway today to clear the seven inch snow from the runway.

Schools in counties around Calloway were closed today also. Three cars overturned yesterday but no injuries were reported.

The most dramatic accident was on the Lynn Grove Highway, just west of the Glindel-Reaves home when Mrs. Jerry McCallion overturned her car as it skidded off the road. She was proceeding west in a 1965 Comet when she skidded off the southside of the road and overturned in a roadside ditch.

The Murray Citizens kicked off the "Pancake Day" ticket sale last week. Tickets are now available from any citizen for the annual event which will take place on March 25. Rudy's and Maple Leaf Restaurants will be the locations of this year's event. Tickets are priced at $1.00 and will be honored at either restaurant at any time between 4 a.m. and 8 p.m. on "Pancake Day". The menu will feature the traditional pancakes and sausage or bacon. Sandwiches and hamburgers will also be available later in the day. All proceeds from the event are used to support community projects and to provide aid to the needy in Murray and Calloway County.

Guest speaker at the dinner meeting was Forrest Martin, District Executive for the Boy Scouts of America. Martin spoke on the purpose of the Scouting Program and noted that the goals of Scouting and Scouting are the same. "The goals of the scouting program," Martin stated, "are to build good citizenship, build character, and to promote physical fitness." He went on to outline the requirements for sponsoring a scout troop. The Murray Citizens Club has been aware of the need for additional scout units in Murray and is considering sponsoring a unit.

Proposals for membership were received for Cross Spann, a Murray realtor, and Jerry Counce, a Church of Christ preacher and a teacher at Paducah Junior College.

Guests at the meeting were Cross Spann; Jerry Counce, Nick Horton of Blankenship Auto Parts, and Maj. Thomas Owen of the Military Science Department at Murray State University.

Memphis State Wind Ensemble To Play Here March 27

The Memphis State University wind ensemble, directed by Tom Ferguson, will appear in concert at Murray State University at 8 p.m. March 27.

After his graduation from high school, Mr. Ferguson attended Murray State University, where he received his bachelor of music education in 1964, and Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y., where his master of music degree was awarded in 1966. He has since completed most of his work for a doctorate in music at Eastman.

Mr. Ferguson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ferguson of Owensboro, Ky.

Mr. Ferguson became director of bands at Memphis State University in 1960 after two years as instructor of the U.S. Naval School of Music in Washington.

The growth of the Mighty Sound of the South 120-member marching band of MSU and the smaller stage band and concert bands have been attributed to Mr. Ferguson's dynamic leadership.

The bands perform before hundreds of thousands of spectators during sports events and on television shows throughout the year. Mr. Ferguson's jazz group is rated by authorities as the best in the Memphis area.

The 60-member wind ensemble, composed mostly of music majors, will travel on two scenic-cruiser buses on a three-day tour through Tennessee and Kentucky.

A Bible Thought For Today

Teach me to do thy will for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. —Psalm 143:10.

We must be able to say—"Thou art my God." Only then can God's good spirit lead us into better ways.

A PEEK INTO AGRICULTURE'S FUTURE

A trial balloon statement sent afloat the other day on the Washington presses by a labor department official may prove to be a better forecast of future developments for agriculture than those offered by the Secretary of Agriculture.

According to a wire service story on February 19 from Washington,
Under Secretary of Labor Millard Casse said government should consider requiring being eligible for benefits from price support programs.

As justification for his proposal,
Casse noted that labor standards have long been a part of government contracts. He further suggested that large commercial farm be required to have unemployment insurance programs.

The statement by Casse is significant as he is not a newcomer to the labor department. He has held responsible posts in this sector of the bureaucracy since 1941. And under President Johnson's new management procedure, high level government spokesmen are not encouraged to make ill-considered statements to the press.

At the same time, if the trial balloon is shot down, Secretary of Labor Wirtz and President Johnson can claim lack of prior knowledge and express surprise.

Actually, there is a certain amount of logic in the Under Secretary of Labor's suggestion, as it is a well established fact that the government has a right to control what it subsidizes. Producers have been required to pay wages approved by the Secretary of Agriculture to qualify for payments under the sugar program.

And with federal government payments accounting for more than 20 percent of farmers' net income, why shouldn't the wage standards required in government contracts be extended to cover all farm advance programs? In 1960, government payments amounted to 5.9 percent of net farm income. Today they represent 20.2 percent.

It's no secret that the labor department has long been under pressure from organized labor to whip agriculture into line and make it subject to federal power edicts.

Many farmers are now getting their first experience with the entangling red tape of the new minimum wage law for agricultural workers—not because of the level of $1 and hour, since most farm wages are higher—but because of the necessity of keeping voluminous records.

Under most wage and hour regulations, the employer is judged guilty, if complaints are registered, and he must rely on his records to prove his innocence.

But if farmers think they have trouble now, consider how they would prove they are providing "economic security" for those they hire as suggested by Under Secretary of Labor Casse.

RAISINS RATING

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP) — Raisins rate first as the favorite dried fruit, says Ethel Dieckrichsen, University of Nebraska Extension nutrition specialist. The average consumption is 15 pounds per person a year.

The sweet, mellow fruit is an excellent source of iron and natural sugar, making it a quick energy food or substitute for candy. Legend holds that raisins were discovered in the Near East in 400 B. C. when grapes that were left on the vine, because of a beautiful crop, withered and dried.
By chance, Miss Dieckrichsen said, some were tasted and proclaimed fine eating.

WHAT'S GOING ON HERE

Full implementation of the Child Nutrition Act of 1966 should greatly strengthen the school lunch program, Thomas A. Lewis of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture says. Lewis heads the Division of Commodity Distribution which provides federally donated foods for the school lunch program.

"The Child Nutrition Act, signed by President Johnson last fall, authorizes a two-year pilot program of breakfasts in schools with a tenty percentage of needy children, or with pupils who travel long distances to school. Three schools in Kentucky are already participating in the project. They are located at Lexington, Frankfort and Morehead. Schools in three other counties are being considered for the new program.

Administration of the school lunch program is handled by the Division of School Lunch of the State Department of Education. Lewis' division is responsible for federally donated food allocated to the schools.

The Division of Commodity Distribution headed by Lewis makes about $5.5 million (wholesale value) worth of food available to schools each year. Foods purchased under the USDA price support program will be made available for use in the new breakfast program.

Commenting on the Child Nutrition Act, Lewis said, "This new legislation will enable schools to broaden the scope of their lunchroom service as a balanced breakfast meal can be served to needy students and those who have a long distance to travel to school. The school lunch program is the most popular and certainly one of the most beneficial in which the Department of Agriculture cooperates."

Lewis went on to say, "Studies have shown that students do better when they receive at least one well-balanced meal during the day. By adding another meal, such as breakfast as authorized under the Child Nutrition Act, we should be making a major contribution to the health and welfare of hundreds of young people."

In addition to the breakfast program, the Child Nutrition Act also permits the extension of USDA-aided school food services to preschools that are part of established school systems. It also authorizes federal funds to pay state administrative costs of the added child nutrition programs and extends the milk program for three years.

Ole friend, it's your turn to use the "wailing wall" this week. Do be careful though, after the deluge of tears last week "the wall" may crumble. If there was the slightest chance of not doing the "moaning act" again, I would apologize.

Sob Sister Sal sure blew a fortune by not funneling all that misery to one of these "tear-jerker" type magazines.

While not approving of the method used, the results were wonderful. Received ONE item in the mail A clipping sent by an anonymous friend. Thank you friend. The idea of FRAMING the envelope becomes more promising by the moment.

Wanted: A typist to donate one hour, for the unhappy task of bringing our obsolete files up to date. Something sad about transferring Mr. X's bound over to Mr. Y's card. Even on paper, yet. We're joking—about the typist, that is!

During the change-over period, and the burning of original cards, may this one be excused? A garden needs spading, or something!

How do you determine who owns which hounds after every 24-hour period elapses?

Fishermen: While this mixture of rain and sleet keeps up it's unwelcome pitter-patter, we shall endeavor to come up with something of interest to you. Don't count on it too much, as a blank is usually the only reward for the effort.

Hunters: It may be a little premature to offer this bit of information, as it doesn't apply until April, however, it could provide some nice day dreaming. Happy hunting AND dreaming!

WILD TURKEY GOBBLER HUNT COMING UP!

Portions of the publicly owned land in the land in the Land Between the Lakes recreation area will be opened for hunting wild turkey gobblers during specified days in April. The Tennessee Valley Authority announced today.

The hunt will be regulated jointly by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources and TVA. It will be carried out as one phase of the multiple land use program being demonstrated by TVA in the 170,000-acre isthmus between Kentucky Lake and Lake Barkley.

The date of the hunt will be April 7 and 8, 14 and 15, and 21 and 22, during the hours from dawn until 11 a.m. Area open to hunting (see map below) will include all public lands between Kentucky Highway 58 and U.S. Highway 68 except for specifically posted areas. The posted land will include the Conservation Education Center bounded by the Mulberry Flat Road and Hematite Church Road on the south, State Highway 453 on the west and Silver Trail and posted trails on the north.

In addition to a valid Kentucky hunting license all hunters will be required to have a Federal permit, according to W. Sherrill Milliken, operations manager for Land Between the Lakes. Permits may be acquired at the Property Management Office, Golden Pond, Kentucky, or at Land Between the Lakes checking stations located near the junction of Highways 453 and 68, 453 and 58. Checking stations will open at 4 a.m. CST on the days of the hunt, and hunters will be required to check in and out.

Turkey may be taken with shotguns, not larger than 12 gauge, nor smaller than 20 gauge. The use of slugs, side arms, and dogs will not be permitted, Milliken said. Hunters may use muzzle-loading shotguns and long bows. Arrows must be barbed with broadhead points. All weapons must be encased or broken down when being transported in vehicles within Land Between the Lakes.

"Hunters may take only one turkey gobbler with visible beard and successful hunters cannot assist any other hunter in taking his turkey," Mr. Milliken stated.

GRAND JUNCTION, Tenn. (UPI) — The final brace of dogs was scheduled to run today before judges at the national bird dog championships.

Running of the final group of 44 dogs was postponed Monday when drenching rains caused creeks to rise on the Ames Plantation.

Hasty Jack, handled by Roy Jones and Paladin's Royal Flush, under the whistle of John Rex Gates, will run if weather permits.

Hopeful that contenders will be able to finish are Howard Kirk of Panama, Ala., handler of Gunsmoke's Yon Way and Hoyle Eaton of Booneville, Miss., handler of Saxon and Riggs White Knight.

The three dogs are contenders for the championship.

MSU Pistol Team Wins Championship

The Murray State Pistol Team won the Midwest Intercollegiate Pistol League Championship Match last Saturday at Murray. The Pistoleros fired a score of 1073, with Ohio State firing a 1065, the University of Wisconsin a 1060, Dayton University a 1054, and Xavier University finishing with a 1005. Jennie Sowell led the team with a score of 273, while Joe Waska, Don Vied, and Ken Mosher rounded out the team's effort with scores of 271, 270, and 268, respectively.

Murray won two out of two league matches, the varsity defeating the Wisconsin varsity team 1078 to 1062, and the ROTC team beating Wisconsin 1048 to 1018.

The other match saw Murray defeating Xavier 1108 to 965 in varsity firing and 1094 to 955 in the ROTC division. In this match, Jennie Sowell fired a 283, the highest score of the day.

In early February the team traveled to Ohio State and Xavier winning five out of six league matches and the NRA Conventional Sectional Championship.

With the two wins and no losses posted in the Murray matches last week, the varsity finished with a 7-5 record to tie the University of Wisconsin for second place in the league. Dayton University finished first in the league with an 8-4 record.

At the League banquet, held at the Holiday Inn, Col. Lance E. Booth, professor of Military Science awarded the League individual and team awards. Jennie Sowell, team captain, accepted the Championship Match Trophy, which was also won last year by Murray. Sowell, Vied, Waska, and Mosher received individual medals for winning the Championship Match. Vied received a medal for the highest season average in the league, with an average of 272.2, and Jennie Sowell received the medal for the second highest season average, with a 267.9.

The MSU shooters will fire a post season match at Southwest Missouri State College at Springfield, Mo., on March 18, 1967.

Wooden Trying To Be Perfect Gets Him No. 1

By FRED McMAINE

UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — John Wooden's drive for perfection earns him little nicknames like "polite slave driver" at UCLA, but it also makes him No. 1 in his class.

The soft-spoken Wooden's basketball coaching techniques, which have paid off in a perfect season to date, have voted as the best for 1966-67 by United Press International, which selected the Bruins' mentor as coach of the year.

The honor was the second for Wooden in the past four seasons and made him the fifth coach ever to win the award twice.

While UCLA is running away with national cage honors this season, Wooden did not run away from the field in the balloting conducted by 200 sportswriters and broadcasters across the nation. Princeton's Bill Butch Van Breda Kolff gave Wooden a strong battle and lost by only three votes, 69-56.

Louisville's Hickman Third Peck Hickman of Louisville finished third with 23 votes.

Cassius Clay

Cassius Clay Makes Ready For March Bout

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cassius Clay, sporting a cowboy hat and a New York State boxing license, began intensive training today for his heavyweight championship defense against Zora Folley March 22.

Clay flew in from Houston Monday afternoon, telling himself "the fastest gun in Texas," renewed his local license which had expired in 1963, underwent a thorough physical examination and departed for his upstate training camp.

Folley, 35, also arrived in town Monday and was examined by commission doctors. Folley then departed for his training camp—some 12 miles away from Clay's. But said he would take Tuesday off before settling down to work.

Both fighters were pronounced in top physical shape by commission Doctor Harry Kleinman, who reported that Folley was in "as sound a physical condition today" as he was two years ago. It had been reported recently that the challenger had suffered a nose bleed during the training and was not in top condition.

Clay said he weighed 210 pounds, almost three pounds lighter than his weight for the Ernie Terrell fight Feb. 6.

"I want to be at 205 or lighter when I meet Folley," the champ said. "Folley is a fast puncher and a hard puncher and I want on top speed I can get. I didn't have to come down that low for Terrell because he's not a fast man."

Clay refrained from taking too much sport with Folley, as his opponent had "until 12 noon March 22 to get out of town or he'll have to fight me."

When told of this, Folley answered, "I'm convinced it's time for a change."

Tennessee Vols Win SEC Crown; Berth To NCAA

The Tennessee Volunteers won the Southeastern Conference basketball title Monday night and a berth in the NCAA tournament with a 78 to 76 victory over Mississippi State.

It wasn't easy. Tennessee was pushed to three overtime periods and didn't wrap it up until sophomore guard Bill Justus of Knoxville sank two free throws with seven seconds remaining in the third period.

The Tennessee-Mississippi State game was the highlight in the fading 1966-67 basketball season. But in other actions, Vanderbilt took a 75 to 66 victory over Louisiana State to tie with Florida for second place in the SEC standings and Kentucky ran up a 110 to 78 margin over Alabama to end up, on a victory not, its worst season in 37 years.

In the crucial game at Knoxville, Tennessee jumped off to an early first half lead and at one point led the Bulldogs by 11 points. But State, trying hard for a major upset, fought back in the second half. Then with but 10 seconds remaining in regulation play, State's Gary Washington sank a 15-foot jump shot to tie the score 64-64 and send the contest into its first overtime period.

The first overtime period left the score tied at 66-66; the second at 72-72.

Ron Worthy led Tennessee with 26 points. Dave Williams was high for State with 27 points.

The Vols finished the season with a 15-3 SEC record and 21-5 for the season. State finished with an 8-10 SEC mark and 14-11 overall.

Pat Riley scored 28 points to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to their victory over the Crimson Tide in a game at Lexington. Both teams finished with 13-13 records but Kentucky it was the worst season in the 37 years Coach Adolph Rupp had been at Lexington.

But those records were not nearly as bad as the 1-17 SEC mark LSU closed out with in its loss to Vanderbilt at Nashville. For Vandy, the victory enabled the Commodores to finish with a 16-4 SEC record and 21-5 season mark.

Cleveland Indians start their exhibition season... Don Lock, Terry Harmon and Larry Hale homered in a Philadelphia intra-squad tune-up.

Minnesota Manager Sam Mele and Dodger skipper Walt Alston each saw veteran and a rookie infielders produce the big bats in the two clubs' initial intra-squad games, while the Cardinals got a lift from a prize second baseman and the Tigers looked hopefully to an improve team. Mele and Alston are concerned, but they hope the kinks are out and its time to get down to business. What the former saw was a Minnesota tradition. What the latter saw could be a Dodger revolution.

Homers Flying

The Twins started banging home runs with their usual gusto right from the start and three of them came from the two contenders for the third base job. Veteran Rich Rollins collected a pair and rookie Ron Clark hit one homer and just missed a second when another of his drives hit the top of the left wall and fell back for a double.

There were pleasant surprises for Alston, who came into spring training with a Koussades pitching staff and throngs of feeble batters.

But on Sunday veteran utility infielder Dick Schofield doubled twice and rookie first baseman Tom Hutton rapped out three singles as the Danny Omaris beat the Preston Comenex 3-1. In all, both sides collected 12 hits through the six-inning game, a ratio of hits per inning the Dodgers were hard pressed to match last season.

In fielders shoe brightly for the Pirates and Senators, too. Second baseman Berrie Allen's fifth-inning homer gave his team a 3-2 win in a game at the Washington camp while shortstop Gene Alley and first baseman Donn Clendenen each poked a two-run blast in a Pittsburgh intra-squad battle.

Matchless Shows Promise

At the Tigers' camp utility infielder Tom Matchick was given a big pat on the back by Manager Mayo Smith, who said the youngster had the best chance to be the first rookie to make the Tigers in the last two years.

Julian Javier had his first workout with Manager Red Schoendienst and the Cardinals.

Plagued with injuries the past two seasons, Javier is the Cards' best hope at second and if he repairs his 1964 for it will be Schoendienst who also faces an uncertain situation at third.

There, converted outfielder Mike Shannon is making a big effort to fill the gap created by the departure of Charlie Smith to the Yankees.

High On Davis

Mets manager Wes Westrum is sold on Davis as his left fielder, but wouldn't mind trading some other outfielder for a left-handed starting pitcher.

While Mayo complained that San Francisco Giant pitchers are too far ahead of the batters. You guys are throwing hard so early that us hitters ain't getting in much work," Mayo growled in mock anger.

"We gotta get in shape, too, you know."

Around the camps: Hank Aaron walked two pitches over the wall in an Atlanta Braves workout, against the wind, no less. Cincinnati spurs played six-inning games. Lee May's homer off Jim Maloney accounted for one of the runs. Ex-Chicago White Sox intra-squad game. He issued a single in each turn.

Luis Tiant, a native of Mexico City, will perform before home town fans next Tuesday night when the

Surprise Birthday Dinner Held For Carmon Butler

Carmon Butler was honored with a surprise dinner in celebration of his birthday on Sunday, March 5, by his wife at their home on Murray Route Two.

Two of his sons, Jerry and Ricky Butler, had come for their father that morning and did not bring him back home until at noon time when all the guests had arrived.

A bountiful dinner was served at the noon hour.

Those present were his brothers and wives, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Butler, Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, nephews and families, Otis Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Butler and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Butler and children; children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Butler and daughter, Renee, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Butler, Ricky Butler, and Miss Patricia Butler; Miss Lani Mayers, and Mr. and Mrs. Carmon Butler.

Boys Pants The Town Red

RACKNELL, England 679 - It was about a month ago that a boy of 14, the juvenile court judge acknowledged.

He had asked the boy why he stole an aerosol can of red paint and sprayed it on six cars, a road sign, a garage door, a fire hydrant, a number of lamp posts and a white fence.

"I was fed up at the time I did it," said the youngster. He was conditionally discharged when he agreed, with his parents, to pay the damages.

The adhesive roller, according to the maker, works indefinitely and needs only to be washed with lukewarm water and soap to keep it fresh and lint-free.

Fine crystal or regular cocktail glasses now can be chilled or frosted in seconds with a two-way action instant-ice glass chiller. Regular glasses are preheated on the top plate to activate chiller. Fine crystal is held by a levit so no pressure is exerted on glasses.

Scissors save time and effort when they are cordless electric ones operating on four "C" cell flashlight batteries. Fine for a right or left handed person. A handy-grip guide insures pattern cutting accuracy with precision.

Advice Helps Frostbite Victim

NEW YORK 679 - In case of frostbite, don't rub the frozen area with snow and don't massage or rub it. In fact, don't touch.

Instead, medical authorities advise, begin rapid rewarming as soon as possible. A hot bath is excellent, but avoid scalding. Hot wet towels will help, applied gently and changed frequently. Hot liquids will help raise body temperature.

If warmth and hot water are not available, place the person in a sleeping bag, or cover him with coats or blankets. Advise "Today's Health," publication of the American Medical Association (AMA), cutting blades for assistance.

A jumbo carry-all sewing chest has a removable top tray with specific compartments for notion sewing items. Its recessed handle allows for easy storage and portability. Strong brass plated hinges and locks add strength to the chest while spring clip hinges give stay-open convenience. The chest comes in tortoise shell or clear plastic.

Fish Dishes With Flair

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

THE Finger Lakes section of New York State is still a region of mother-to-daughter recipes of beautiful church suppers and warm hearthside hospitality with regional menus that center around the "catch of the day" during fishing and happy hunting seasons.

Many of the local recipes—and we're featuring three today—star fish from the cold waters of lakes named by the Indians—Seneca, Canandaigua, Cayuga, Seneca.

For example, lake perch might be used to make flavorful Poached Fish Fillets. Homemakers far from lake country usually will find frozen perch available. If not, flounder or sole, fresh or frozen, makes a fine alternate.

POACHED FISH FILLETS

- 1 bunch scallions
- 1 1/2 lbs. fillet of flounder, sole or perch
- 1 tsp. salt
- Few grains pepper
- 1 tsp. dried dill weed or tarragon
- 2 1/2 c. dry vermouth
- 1/4 c. sliced toasted almonds

Trim and slice scallions, bulbs and 3 in. of green stalks; spread in shallow buttered baking dish. Arrange fish fillets in single layer over scallions. Sprinkle with seasonings. Pour enough vermouth into baking dish to cover fillets. Bake, covered, at 350°F. for 15 min.; remove and cover, bake 15 min. longer, or until fish flakes easily with a fork. Scatter almonds over surface. Serves 4.

FISH AND VEGETABLE CHOWDER

- 2 medium onions, thinly sliced
- 3 tbsp. butter or margarine

Buttered bread crumbs. Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, mustard, Worcestershire, Tabasco and nutmeg.

Combine milk and cream; add. Stir over low heat until smooth and thickened. Add a little of this sauce to egg yolks, blend, and return egg mixture to remaining sauce; blend. Stir in wine.

Flake crabmeat, removing any cartilage. Save red claw meat for garnish. Add crabmeat to sauce.

Fill 4 to 6 ramekins, depending on size, with crabmeat mixture. Top each with strip of red claw meat. Surround with buttered crumbs. Bake at 400°F. about 10 min. or until crumbs are browned. Serves 4 to 6.

ANY FIRM-FLESH white fish—cod, scrod, haddock, or halibut—can be used for this hearty chowder. Canned kernel corn, canned mushrooms and onions add to its goodness.

- 4 c. thinly sliced raw potatoes
- 6 c. water
- 1 (12 oz.) can kernel corn
- 1 (6 oz.) can broiled sliced mushrooms
- 2 lbs. firm white fish fillet
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1/2 c. dry sherry

Cook onions in butter until soft but not brown. Add potatoes and water; cook until potatoes are tender. Add corn and mushrooms (with liquid from can). Cut fish (cod, scrod, haddock or halibut) into 2-in. pieces; add. Cook until fish flakes and is done, about 10 to 12 min. Season to taste and stir in sherry. Serve at once. Serves 6 to 8.

DEVILED CRABMEAT

- 2 tbsp. butter or margarine
- 2 tbsp. flour
- 1 tsp. prepared mustard
- 1/4 tsp. Worcestershire
- Few drops Tabasco
- 1/2 c. milk
- 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
- 1/4 c. rhine wine
- 3 cans (about 3 c.) crabmeat

Buttered bread crumbs. Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, mustard, Worcestershire, Tabasco and nutmeg.

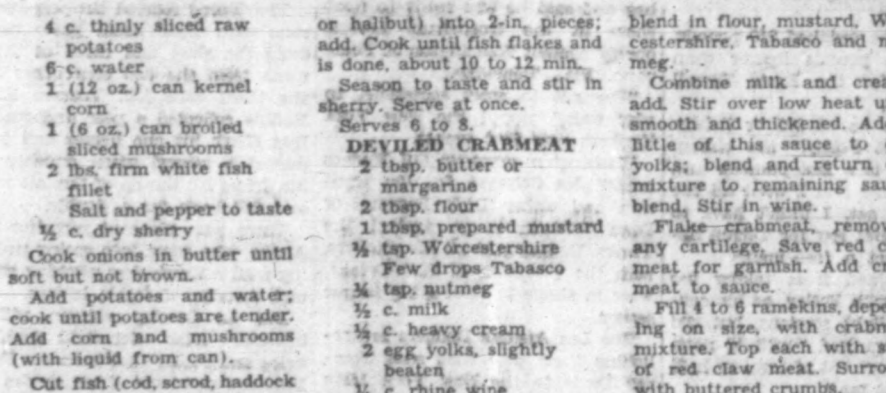

Combine milk and cream; add. Stir over low heat until smooth and thickened. Add a little of this sauce to egg yolks, blend, and return egg mixture to remaining sauce; blend. Stir in wine.

Flake crabmeat, removing any cartilage. Save red claw meat for garnish. Add crabmeat to sauce.

Fill 4 to 6 ramekins, depending on size, with crabmeat mixture. Top each with strip of red claw meat. Surround with buttered crumbs. Bake at 400°F. about 10 min. or until crumbs are browned. Serves 4 to 6.

Following Tips Help The Ill

SANTA MONICA, Calif. 679 - Your doctor's prescription is always more likely to be effective if taken exactly as directed by him.

Follow the exact dosage, at the time intervals recommended, and if specific technique of administration is required, making proper use of any device that may be necessary.

Dr. Daniel H. Simmons of the University of California in Los Angeles stressed this at a post-graduate assembly, St. John's Hospital, Santa Monica.

He described a typical case history as follows: He had prescribed a bronch-dilating drug in an aerosol spray (Isuprel) Mifometer, a medication used to open the airways of the lungs to permit easier breathing.

When the patient complained he was not getting adequate relief, the doctor found that the patient was not operating the aerosol device correctly. A simple lesson in how properly to use it resulted in the patient obtaining "remarkable relief," the doctor said.

Grandpa Favors 'Only' Grandchild

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our only child, a son, died leaving his young widow and a baby boy I'll call Billy. His widow subsequently married and now she has two more sons besides Billy.

We remember her and her two other sons generously at Christmas, but naturally we go all out for our only grandchild.

Now the mother refuses to let Billy spend week-ends with us because we favor him over the others. What is your advice?

DEAR HURT: The boy's mother is unfeeling to punish you for favoring your only grandchild, but she calls the times, so don't alienate her. Since Billy must live with his half-brothers, don't make it tough for him by making him the object of jealousy.

If you want to do something "special" for your only grandchild (and who can blame you?) go "all out" on his birthday, or set up a trust to be used for his education. But treat all the boys with equal generosity at Christmas time.

DEAR ABBY: We are a group of high school girls with a problem. Our boy friends are on the "B" basketball team, and the coach told them if they were caught going with girls they would have to turn in their suits.

But listen to this: The boys on the "A" basketball team go with girls, and the coach doesn't say a word to them because the "A" team has won lots of games, but the "B" team hasn't won many. Do you think this coach is fair?

DEAR GIRL FRIENDS: I think the coach is not only unfair, but he's exceeding his authority as a coach. The school administration should give the whistle on his threat about rewards and punishments, especially when they conflict with normal, natural boy-girl relationships.

DEAR ABBY: A girl signed "GOING TO PRETTY" wanted to know what to do about her boy friend, whom she described as a "well guy." He was locked up in the stockade for going AWOL for a second time—and for 56 days yet!

You told her to love him, but you didn't make it strong enough. "As an army wife I know that these 'well guys' are just exactly what will happen if they overstay their leave. And anyone who disregards these warnings is no 'well guy'—he's an irresponsible jerk. And anyone who does it TWICE is just plain stupid. 'Going to Pretty' should get going and find herself a really swell guy who will be a responsible husband with regard for his obligations."

Ways To Stop UCLA Is Off Season Problem For Coaches

By FRED McMANE
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If one championship comes so easily, can two more be far behind?

That's a question that will confront many of the nation's coaches this summer as they try to develop ways of halting the powerful UCLA Bruins, who today reigned as the United Press International Board of Coaches 1966-67 major college basketball champions for the second time in the past four years.

The undefeated Bruins, easily the class of the nation's college teams throughout the entire campaign, rolled through this season with a sophomore-laden team and have given every indication that this year's title is just the first of three successive crowns. The only team to offer the Bruins any form of competition in the final ratings was Louisville, which received one first place nod and 307 points to finish second. The Cardinals closed their season with a five 23-3 record and captured first place in the tough Missouri Valley Conference.

North Carolina, which finishes atop the Atlantic Coast Conference and posted a 21-4 record overall, surprised the coaches who tabbed it 18th in the pre-season survey by finishing third with 232 points. Kansas, the Big Eight Champ, was fourth with a 20-3 record and surprising Princeton, the Ivy League king, was fifth with a 23-2 record. Houston equalled its pre-season expectation by finishing sixth with a 23-3 record. Western Kentucky finished seventh with a 23-2 mark and Texas Western was eighth with a 20-3 record. The Hilltoppers finished two places better than expected while the Miners were six places lower than assumed.

Tennessee was another team which had a surprising season and finished with a 20-5 record while Boston College rounded out the top 10 with a 19-3 mark.

Rockets Rocketed The virtually unheralded Toledo Rockets, who won 23 of their games and climbed from 15th to 11th in the final week.

St. John's NY, which finished with a 23-3 record, grabbed the 12th slot. Tulsa 19-7 climbed to 13th and Vanderbilt 20-5 and Utah State 20-5 ended in a deadlock for 14th.

Rounding out the top 20 were Pacific U. 21-3, Providence 20-6, New Mexico 16-7, Duke 16-7 and Florida 21-4. The national championship awarded UCLA made it a grand sweep for the Bruins of the UPI awards this season. Alcindor received Player of the Year honors last week and John Wooden was selected Coach of the Year last week.

Seldom has a team been more deserving of the honor than the Bruins. Paced by Alcindor's 30-point per game average, UCLA scored more than 100 points in 21 games this season and came close to losing only once when Southern California forced it into overtime with stalling tactics before losing 40-35.

week ago were turned down by Justice Potter Stewart when the same evidence they had Monday, decided another appearance before the high court was useless.

Kept In Touch Throughout the court hearing Monday, Hoffa kept in touch with what was happening by telephone from his plush top-floor office at teamster headquarters: just a block away.

When it was all over, attorney Daniel Mahler told Hoffa over the phone: "Jimmy I'm sorry, I'm sorry." Moments before Mahler had suggested confidence he would win.

The last legal maneuver was an attempt to have the District of Columbia Court of Appeals take jurisdiction over the various cases pending in several courts around the country. Had the court agreed to this, it would have resulted in an automatic stay of sentence.

Hoffa was convicted in Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1964 for tampering with a Nashville, Tenn., jury two years earlier during his trial on charges he took a million dollars in kickbacks from a local trucking firm. The original Nashville trial ended in a hung jury and has never been retried. Hoffa himself probably held no illusions as to his chances of avoiding jail. Last Friday he spent a portion of the day shaking hands and saying goodbye to various staff employees at teamster headquarters.

Once the cell doors have clanged shut behind him, Hoffa's power in the 1.7 million-member union will immediately be in jeopardy.

At the teamsters convention last June union Vice President Frank R. Fitzsimmons, a longtime Hoffa ally from Detroit, was elected to the newly created post of executive vice president in anticipation of Hoffa's prison term.

In Baltimore last week the union's executive board voted to give Fitzsimmons the powers but not the title of president during Hoffa's absence.

But how long Fitzsimmons can hold onto the union is a question. In prison, Hoffa's visitors and correspondence will be limited making it almost impossible to keep in regular touch with the union. He may only write three letters a week and receive seven.

There is also the strong possibility that once Hoffa is out of the way, the AFL-CIO may make overtures to bring the Teamsters back into the federation.

The Teamsters were kicked out after Hoffa became president in the late 1950s.

thought about. But when it comes to protecting our country we never run out. We go all over Viet Nam and never do we let our fellow soldier down.

We take them supplies wherever they are, if it be near or if it be far. We always get there on time. If it's Cam Rhan Bay or on the front line. For we are the truck drivers.

Jerry is right. A front line soldier without supplies is not worth much.

The truck drivers bring up everything the other soldiers need: food, ammunition, clothing, medical supplies, gasoline, oil, water and anything else they might need.

If any of these items fail to be supplied, people suffer.

And, just to show how important supply lines are, this is the first thing our planes look for when seeking an enemy target. They know if they can break up the supply line which goes to enemy troops, the troops can be dealt with more easily.

So, hats off to Jerry Eldridge and all the other truck drivers in Viet

Entertain at Brunch With Festive Pancakes Or Eggs

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

THE brunch party seems to be a big hit with the young-married set. It's a care-free way to entertain, a pleasantly informal and inexpensive way to ease away a free Saturday or Sunday.

What's the proper menu for a meal that combines breakfast with lunch? Nothing too heavy because, although served late, brunch is still the first meal of the day. And nothing too light, either, as guests will be hungry. Festive versions of breakfast dishes are a good choice, so today we offer two.

Our Londontown recipe serves over-popular pancakes with a filling of tuna in Newburg sauce.

Prefer an egg dish? Then try Crab Foo Young, an omelet done the Oriental way.

LONDONTOWN PANCAKES 4 large pancakes 1 (3 or 4 oz.) can sliced

CANNED CRAB MEAT, bean sprouts and scallions are added to Tabasco-spiced egg mixture for Oriental omelet.

mushrooms 2 (6 1/2 or 7 oz.) cans tuna in vegetable oil 4 tbsp. flour 1/2 tsp. salt 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten 1 pimiento, diced 2 tbsp. sherry, optional

Cook 4 pancakes, using 1 c. batter for each. Keep pancakes warm.

Drain mushrooms; add enough milk mushroom liquid to make 2 c. Reserve.

Drain 2 tbsp. oil from tuna into saucepan; heat. Blend in flour and salt. Add reserved milk mixture and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to boil.

Add small amount of hot mixture to egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return egg mixture to saucepan and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened slightly. Add mushrooms, tuna, pimiento and sherry; heat to serving temperature.

Layer between pancakes; cut into wedges.

Serves 4 to 6.

CRAB FOO YOUNG 1/2 tsp. Tabasco 6 eggs 1 c. drained canned bean sprouts 1 (7 oz.) can crab meat, coarsely flaked 4 scallions, thinly sliced 2 tbsp. salad oil, divided Add Tabasco to eggs; beat lightly with fork. Stir in bean sprouts, crab meat and scallions.

Heat 2 tsp. oil in skillet; add about a quarter of the egg mixture; cook until lightly browned; turn and brown on other side.

Continue making individual omelets, keeping them hot until all 4 are cooked. Stack on serving platter and top with warm Sweet and Sour Sauce. Serve with hot cooked rice and additional sauce, if desired.

Serves 3 to 4.

SWEET AND SOUR SAUCE 2 tsp. sugar 1/2 tsp. cornstarch

PERFECT brunchon pancakes are served with a filling of canned tuna fish in a rich, delicious Newburg sauce.

3 tsp. vinegar 1 tsp. soy sauce 1/2 tsp. Tabasco 1/2 c. cold water

Combine sugar, cornstarch, vinegar, soy sauce and Tabasco in saucepan. Stir in water cook over low heat, stirring until thickened.

Makes 1/2 c.
